

MISSOURI FCCLA IN ACTION

SPOTLIGHT

Stevie Pitt

A note from Stevie's adviser, Crystal Goins:

"Stevie was a sophomore this past school year which made her the youngest Chapter President we have ever had. She shines because even with this younger age, her leadership style doesn't convey youth, it conveys maturity and poise beyond her years. Stevie is a self starter which makes being her advisor a breeze. As her advisor, I rarely have to remind her of upcoming things, she is the one reminding and getting the things done that need to be done. When it comes to our members, Stevie loves them all and wants to see success for all of them. She is always a great listener when it comes to new ideas, STAR Events, and personal things as well; and her fellow members love her in return because of these things. Stevie has been re-elected as our 2023-24 Chapter President as well and I cannot wait to see the awesome things she will push our chapter to do."

Stevie - We can't wait to see how you thrive in this organization!

MOEFCS CONFERENCE

The annual MOACTE and MoEFCS Conference kicks off Monday, July 24 in Springfield! The conference is packed full of really great professional development and networking opportunities for FCS teachers and FCCLA advisers. It's a great way to get back into the "school" mindset, make connections with advisers from all over the state, and reconnect with old friends and colleagues. There will also be some important updates from DESE and Missouri FCCLA coming at conference next week. If you haven't registered, there's still time - you can even register on-site! For more information, contact Debra Price via email at debraprice81@gmail.com

The FCCLA State Executive Council also meets in Springfield next week to kick off the new year in FCCLA. They have a super busy week planning Fall Leadership Conference, Legislative Shadowing, and National Leadership Conference. They've been brainstorming leading up to next week, and they have some really great ideas to make Missouri FCCLA even better for our members and advisers!

There is also an opportunity to help them in their planning! See the "Help Wanted" section on the next page to learn more about how you can play a role in making our state FCCLA events the best they've ever been.

MISSOURI FCCLA IN ACTION

making our conferences even better!

The State Executive Council meets NEXT WEEK in Springfield for their annual Summer Planning Meeting. This is where the magic happens! The SEC will plan the details of Missouri FCCLA conferences for the 2023-2024 school year. This year, we are hoping to tap into our amazing advisers to help make our conferences a great place for members and advisers to network, learn, and have fun.

We desperately need your help reaching all of the individuals and organizations we know are out there waiting to work with us to provide the best at our conferences. Please use this form to recommend potential exhibitors, presenters, and partners for our conferences this year. We'd also love to have YOU do a presentation, roundtable, and/or workshop for youth or adults! If you are willing and able to do that, please fill out the same form and just put YOUR information in the appropriate spots.

We've all heard the phrase "it takes a village" when referring to raising children. We are part of that village. Help us provide our kids with the best opportunities we can!

LEARN

In partnership with Missouri FCCLA, the Missouri Department of Elementary and Secondary Education, Missouri State University, and University of Central Missouri will host a series of educational opportunities for FCS teachers and FCCLA advisers this school year. Topics will range from FCCLA and STAR Events to FCS coursework topics. Information will be available on the DESE FCSHS website and released via the FCS List Serv as workshops get closer and registrations open, so be on the lookout!

Currently, registrations for two workshops are open: Pathways to the Teaching Profession on August 2, 2023 in Jefferson City; and FCCLA Chapter Basics on August 11 in Springfield. Find more information and the registration links on the DESE FCSHS website here.
