

MISSOURI FCCLA IN ACTION

IMPORTANT!

Fall Leadership Conference

- Deadline for hotel reservations is September 8!! Instructions for making reservations are found on the Missouri FCCLA website > Attend > Fall Leadership Conference.
- For registration, you must submit affiliation before registering. You do not have to PAY your invoice, but you must submit. You can create additional invoices and submissions later, and pay all invoices with one check when you're done affiliating everyone.
- The emergency contact for each person should be someone off-site. For students, it should be a parent or guardian.
- When making your hotel reservation, you must request a Credit Card Authorization form if you plan on paying by credit card. When returning the completed form to the hotel, include your school's tax exempt letter.
- If you have registration or lodging-related questions, contact Depend on Us at dependonusllc@gmail.com or 573-508-9169. They are SUPER helpful and always quick to respond.

WEBSITE

Missouri FCCLA has a brand new website! The new URL is <https://missourifccla.org>. There are TONS of resources and information available to you already and more being added all the time.

The Adviser tab is FULL of really great resources for FCCLA and the classroom, and we're always looking for more to add. If you have something you love that you'd like to share with others, you can submit it on that page.

As with all new things, there will be a transition period with the new website. If something is missing or a little funky, just shoot us a note and we'll take a look. The old URL (mofccla.org) will forward for one month to give you time to update bookmarks and saved links.

LAST CHANCE

Today is the LAST CHANCE for a few opportunities for advisers!

Registration for the "What's New in STAR Events" workshop will close at 11:59pm tonight. If you'd like to attend to gear up for contest season, make sure to get your registration in!

Registration Fee: $40 (includes lunch and supplies)
Register here: <https://bit.ly/MOSTAR>

Order forms for the adviser-exclusive apparel will close tonight at 11:59pm as well. We know that the start of the school year can be expensive, so if you'd like to order but need a little extra time to pay, just leave a comment on the order form. We will likely not do another order, so order now if you think you might want some!
