

MISSOURI FCCLA

BUILDING STRONG LEADERS

Family, Career and Community Leaders of America (FCCLA) is a dynamic national student organization that helps young individuals become leaders and address important person, family, work and societal issues through family and consumer sciences education. Chapter projects focus on a variety of youth concerns, including career exploration, family relationships, financial literacy, nutrition and fitness, peer pressure, substance abuse, teen pregnancy, and teen violence.

WHY FCCLA?

- ☆ FCCLA is a co-curricular career and technical student organization (CTSO) that functions as an integral part of the FCS curriculum and operates within private and public schools. FCCLA helps students and teachers focus on a variety of youth concerns in four specific career pathways.
- ☆ FCCLA provides opportunities for active student participation at local, state, and national levels.
- ☆ Members can be involved in competitive events, national programs, state programs, and leadership positions at all levels.
- ☆ FCCLA is the only CTSO with the family as its central focus.

SUPPORT

FCCLA is supported primarily through student membership dues. Additional funds may be provided by individuals, corporations, and foundations.

FCCLA is endorsed by the U.S. Department of Education, Missouri Department of Elementary and Secondary Education, the American Association of Family and Consumer Sciences and state associations, and the Association of Career and Technical Education and state associations.
