$20 CLOTHING CHALLENGE

COMPETITION PROCEDURES

ALL LEVELS
Participants will submit their project to the appropriate location during designated conference registration hours.
The participant will not spend more than $20 on a complete outfit that covers the entire body. Purchase receipts are required and should show a purchase date during the current school year. Outfit pieces should be purchased from garage sales, consignment stores, thrift stores, or other secondhand locations. Participants must complete the $20 Challenge Report and attach two (2) photos of themselves wearing the outfit – front-facing and back-facing. The participant should submit a file folder with two (2) copies of all project elements as indicated in project specifications. The file folder must be labeled (either typed or handwritten) in the top left corner with the name of the event, event level, participant's name, and state.
